SOUTH HILL PARK TODAY

CREATIVITY at its soul and COMMUNITY at its heart

Described as the ‘Jewel in the Crown of Berkshire’ (GET READING), registered charity South Hill Park has been providing arts to the local community since it first opened its doors in 1973. The last 45 years have seen the arts centre grow its offer from a place of productions and festivals to a venue in the heart of Bracknell’s community. We are now engaging residents in learning and participation, nurturing talent and skills, providing enriched volunteer opportunities and much needed youth activities, and we continue to offer a range of experiences for all to enjoy.

Unfortunately, along with most arts providers across the UK, South Hill Park has also experienced year-on-year cuts in funding. We are now in a position where we need to look for a range of alternative ways to support the work of South Hill Park and all of our activities. We are confident that with the help and support of our audiences, local partners, businesses and the local community we can continue to make a difference to the lives of people in Bracknell.

There are three ways you can support us right now:

• volunteer your time and skills
• make a donation
• get involved in our fundraising efforts.

For more information and to get involved contact our Development Manager on development@southhillpark.org.uk
Welcome

South Hill Park has been the arts centre of ‘opportunity’ for almost 50 years: opportunities to experience new and memorable performances, opportunities to develop a talent or passion for the arts and opportunities which broaden horizons and open doors. In July, the Governor of West Java presented South Hill Park with a set of magnificent gamelan musical instruments adding a rare opportunity to learn a new skill right here in Bracknell Forest – see page CW9.

Made in Bracknell, by Bracknell and for Bracknell, the South Hill Park Productions continue to grow in popularity. As well as our award-winning Christmas pantomime – this year the classic tale of Aladdin and his magic lamp – we are also producing the Dickens’ classic Great Expectations in October and Shakespeare’s The Tempest in February – tickets on sale now.

On Monday 28 October (half-term), we will hold a very special Open Day, an opportunity to discover more about your local arts centre and what goes on behind the scenes. Places are limited so book early. From comedy to music, dance to drama, there is something for everyone this autumn. And, for the little ones, don’t forget to visit Father Christmas in his grotto this December.

South Hill Park Arts Centre is a not-for-profit charitable trust. Our sole purpose is to provide Bracknell Forest and the surrounding areas with an outstanding and diverse arts programme which inspires and enriches the lives of all who visit us. As funding levels fall, we rely more and more on other sources of income – the Atrium Restaurant and bar, wedding receptions in the brand new Coach House or fundraising activities. If you are planning a party, a reception or a business conference, an entertaining night out or simply looking for a place to eat, every time you choose South Hill Park you are contributing to the present and future of Berkshire’s most popular arts centre.

Great Expectations

In the little world in which children have their existence, whosoever brings them up, there is nothing so finely perceived and so finely felt, as injustice.

CHARLES DICKENS (GREAT EXPECTATIONS)

This powerful adaptation of the much-loved Dickens novel delves into the childhood hopes and fears of young Pip, as he begins his adventures in the windswept marshes of Kent, to the haunting cobwebbed lair of Miss Havisham. Pip’s epic journey sees him come of age and discover the adult world of loss and regret.

From the South Hill Park creative team who brought you Private Peaceful (2018) and Macbeth (2019), expect an inventive and atmospheric interpretation of this classic text.

The Tempest

Hell is empty and all the devils are here  ARIEL

A crash of waves. A ship torn in two. A family broken. Set sail into the mysterious and magical world of The Tempest with South Hill Park’s retelling of Shakespeare’s famous last play.

Banished from Milan by his ambitious brother, Antonio, Prospero rules a remote island. As time passes his desire for revenge and justice slowly grows. When Prospero learns that his brother is sailing near his desolate home, the vengeful brother, with the help of his servant Ariel, conjures a deadly storm.

The fate of the shipwrecked souls now rests in the sorcerer’s hands, but will he manipulate the castaways to deal out his version of justice, or learn to forgive those who have wronged him?

This fantastical adaptation reunites Joe Malyan (director) with Victoria Spearing (award-winning set designer) after their triumphant South Hill Park productions of Macbeth (2019) and Romeo and Juliet (2018) and features an original score by composer George Jennings.

The Tempest is a story of love, magic, revenge and forgiveness that promises to bewitch audiences both new and well-versed to the Bard.

Andy Parsons: Healing the Nation

It was 24 June 2016 as I stood in a supermarket contemplating a meal deal. It was the day after the Referendum and I was rushing as I took my items to the lad on the till. He scanned the first two items but the third item wouldn’t scan. This was a nightmare – there was a queue forming and he was going to call the supervisor. Then, to his credit, he went ‘bip’ himself and chucked it through. At that moment I thought “we’ll be alright as a country…”. And we will be alright. Trust me. I’m not a politician. Ages 14yrs+

Mishandled Archive

By Tara Fatehi

Mishandled Archive grows out of a year-long process, in 2017, where Tara Fatehi Imani dispersed copies of her collection of family documents around the UK, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Ukraine and Iran.

Every day, for 365 days, she placed a family photo, ID card, will, letter or obituary in an unexpected public place. Each document left behind inspired her to perform a spontaneous dance. Passers-by became audiences of these performances on-site and online. The current installation brings together documents of these daily performances and immerses the viewer in photographs, dance scores and visual narratives inviting them to imagine alternative futures for those who appear in this archive.

Tara Fatehi Imani is a cross-disciplinary artist working with performance, visual arts, writing and media. Her work engages with mistranslated memories and unattended archives and is primarily concerned with the ephemeral interactions between memories, words, bodies and sites.

From theatres, galleries and deserted buildings in her hometown Tehran to the Royal Academy of Arts, RichMix, SPILL Festival and Chelsea Theatre in the UK, she has presented her work at several well-known and unconventional national and international venues.

Reconstruction

By Camila Mora

This exhibition showcases Camila Mora’s ongoing project of developing and reconstructing rolls of undeveloped family films that were misplaced for more than forty years. With the decision to develop these and to record the process, the artist became ambivalent about her initial desire to know the events these photographs had captured. As Mora writes she ‘was in turn disappointed, elated, moved, angry, and surprised by the result’.

Camila Mora Scheiing is an interdisciplinary artist working between Paris and London. Photography is central to her practice using found/lost photographs as her source material, questioning the nature of photography as a representation of reality, while continuously trying to understand the past through the present and the present through the past.

Breakfast preview to be confirmed.
Life on a Spectrum

By Mahlia Amatina

Artist Mahlia Amatina invites you into a multi-sensory experience of colour, line, shape, and form through tactile art that explores the creative side of neurodiversity. After being diagnosed with Asperger’s Syndrome in 2015, Mahlia was inspired to share the unique sensory experiences of life on the autistic spectrum through her art.

Working around the theme of neurodiversity, Mahlia has transformed her signature style of abstract colourism into a unique, interactive, multi-sensory experience that invites viewers to engage on the level that works for them. Life on a Spectrum is an accumulation of work created both in residency in Barcelona, as well as in New York City through the Arts Council England’s Developing Your Creative Practice fund.

Breakfast preview to be confirmed.

Sensesence

By Caroline Crawford

Caroline Crawford is a multidisciplinary artist based in Berkshire and one of South Hill Park’s talented tutors, leading several painting courses throughout the year. Her art practice incorporates the physical action of the body, exploiting and playing with the time between her gesture and the surface. Crawford draws her influences from film, physical interaction, movement, touch, and nature.

For this exhibition she has used her senses so as to translate sound, and particularly music, into an image through instinctive gestures. Sensesence is ‘the human process of absorbing sound and translating it into the visual through interaction of sight and touch’.
