Dementia-Friendly and Relaxed Screenings

ALL TICKETS
£5.50 each

Specially-designed screenings for people living with dementia, their carers and anyone preferring to experience cinema in calm surroundings. With lights left on low and sound level reduced, these relaxed screenings are on the second Monday of each month.

Doors open 1.30pm for a 2pm start, with a short interval. Complimentary refreshments will be provided after each film screening. All staff and volunteers are Dementia Friends.

When booking please advise if wheelchair access is required.

Whisky Galore!

Mon 9 Sept 2pm

Dir. Alexander Mackendrick, UK, 1949, 80 mins
John Gregson, Basil Radford, Joan Greenwood

A brilliant and warm-hearted Ealing Studios comedy about the alcohol-deprived folks on a Scottish Outer Hebrides island tempted by a ship's wrecked cargo of fine export whisky. Don't miss this charming, fun-filled comedy on the big screen.

Carry On Camping

Mon 14 Oct 2pm

Dir. Gerald Thomas, UK, 1969, 85 mins
Sidney James, Kenneth Williams, Charles Hawtrey, Barbara Windsor

Sid and Bernie talk their girlfriends into a weekend away, but end up at the run-down Paradise Holiday campsite. One of the most famous of the Carry On movies (mainly thanks to Barbara Windsor's bra), and with all ten regulars on their best form.

Black History Month

We mark Black History Month with a rare screening of a British film starring US cultural icon and political activist, Paul Robeson.

The Proud Valley

Wed 2 Oct 7.30pm

Dir. Peter Tennyson, UK, 1939, 77 mins
Paul Robeson, Edward Chapman, Simon Lack

Paul Robeson was the pre-eminent African-American film star of his day, but much preferred working outside the US, allowing him to portray the black working man 'as he is'. Robeson contributed his talent and his willingness to challenge the prevailing conventions of racism, imperialism and social injustice. Here, he is the quintessential everyman, an American sailor who joins rank-and-file Welsh miners organising against the powers that be.

A Season in France

Mon 2 & Tue 3 Sept 7.30pm

Dir. Mahamat-Saleh Haroun, Fr, 2017, 101 mins, French with subtitles
Eriq Ebouaney, Sandrine Bonnaire, Aalayna Lys

Having fled his war-torn country with his family, an African high-school teacher makes a new life. A compassionate and observant film that's deceptively quiet, but beneath the surface it rages.

Speaks with a simple eloquence a bout a humanity that we seem on the verge of losing SIGHT&SOUND

Anna

Thu 5 & Fri 6 Sept 7.30pm

Dir. Luc Besson, Fr/US, 2019, 119 mins
Sasha Luss, Helen Mirren, Luke Evans, Cillian Murphy

Beneath Anna Poliatova's striking beauty lies a secret that will unleash her indelible strength and skill to become one of the world's most feared government assassins. A non-stop thrill ride of breath-taking action.
