Welcome

Live theatre is so much more than just a form of entertainment. For thousands of years, civilisations around the world have been telling stories; from Aristophanes to Shakespeare, Brecht to Stoppard. Stories that bring communities together in a shared experience, an opportunity to laugh, to cry, to learn, to grow as individuals and as a society. Every time the arts touch our lives, we change a little, hopefully for the better.

This summer, South Hill Park presents a diverse programme including free live music on the Terrace, the return of the Summer Craft Market in May and the ever-popular Festival of Food and Music in June, featuring tributes to Freddie Mercury and Elton John. This annual weekend is the largest festival in Bracknell Forest, an opportunity to enjoy the British sunshine with friends, family, neighbours and colleagues, whilst listening to live music and trying a range of delicious food from over 30 vendors.

There is plenty for our younger visitors this summer, with performances of Shrek Jr, Annie, Mama G in the Magic Bookmark, CREATION – The Bubble Show, Top Secret – The Magic of Science, The Smeds and the Smoos, Mrs Armitage on Wheels and the return of the National Festival Circus in July – as well as a two-week summer school culminating in four performances of The Addams Family musical.

There is plenty of live music to enjoy in the Wilde Theatre, Cellar Bar and McAllister's, plus drama in the Studio Theatre and even drag bingo with the ever-popular Fonda Cox. A full programme of cinema screenings, over 60 courses and workshops in visual and performing arts, and free-to-view art exhibitions are also available across the Arts Centre. And don't forget the Atrium Bar and Restaurant which is open seven days a week. Enjoy a glass of wine on the Terrace on a balmy summer evening or treat yourself to a delicious Sunday roast or afternoon tea.

Whilst still many months away, preparations for this year's family pantomime Mother Goose and The Golden Egg are well under way with advance sales outstripping previous years. Secure your favourite seats before it's too late.

Best wishes

A STUDIO THEATRE PRODUCTION

Nineteen Eighty Four

If you want a picture of the future, imagine a boot stamping on a human face – forever.

Winston Smith is a beige bureaucrat at the Ministry of Truth. His job is to make up lies all day, rewriting history and erasing from the records anyone who has fallen out of favour with the State. Secretly, however, Winston rebels. First by starting a diary and then by falling in love.

We visit Orwell's dark, dystopian world of thought criminals, newspeak and doublethink through the musings of a book group as they debate the merits of Winston's diary. Is the thing that's in Room 101 really the worst thing in the world? Is the book group even real? Big Brother is watching in this disturbing vision of fiction/reality and future/present.

ARE YOU READY TO BE RE-EDUCATED?

Paul R Freeman's lifelong obsessions with both photography and the Space Age collide in Spacelands – his long-term documentary project examining: the remnants of the atomic age; the emergence of a new space race; the uncanny, alien spaces of the desert around New Mexico; and the arcs of fantasy, hope and failure that characterise the history of space exploration.

Healthy Eating

By Year 3 Students

Artist and educator Areej Abdi explores nature and the environment through multi-disciplinary practice. In this project, she worked with Year 3 students from two local primary schools, using drawing and printmaking to promote healthy eating and positive choices. Students produced prints, drawings and mixed-media works – inspired by nutrition and various artists – creating Healthy Lifestyle Superheroes embodying the benefits of good habits.

Areej's work uses cyanotype techniques to capture the beauty of fruits and vegetables as symbols of nourishment and life cycles.

The Healthy Lifestyles Project is a collaboration between South Hill Park Arts Centre, NHS Public Health and Bracknell Forest Borough Council.
