Welcome

As we approach our summer season here at South Hill Park Arts Centre, the sun is out and the trees have begun to leaf. Hot on the heels of our Easter musical, the team is busy preparing for a family-friendly production of The Secret Garden, and where better to present this classic tale but in our own Italian Gardens this August. And in September, we welcome back SHOUT! The Mod Musical, a popular and much-needed distraction in those Covid-19 days. If you missed it in 2021, be sure to catch it in the Wilde Theatre this autumn.

In June, the Festival of Food and Music takes over our beautiful grounds for another weekend of FREE music and laughter. Hosted by local drag artist Fonda Cox and featuring ABBA Stars UK and Levena Johnson (soul and Motown), this Bracknell tradition attracts over 6,000 people every year and is a fun afternoon for all the family – see pages 4 and 5. There are further opportunities to enjoy live outdoor performances throughout June, July and August. Bask in our British summer weather with 10 Sundays of FREE live music on the terrace, plus performances of Jeeves and Wooster and Around the World in 80 Days in the wooded Amphitheatre.

The Wilde Theatre, Cellar Bar and Recital Room will all play host to a variety of music, from tributes to The Beatles, Barry Manilow and Fleetwood Mac, to the legendary Herman's Hermits and X-Factor runner up, Ray Quinn, celebrating the music of the world-famous Rat Pack.

For our younger audiences, we have Bippo's Circus Adventure; everyone's childhood favourite, Basil Brush; a stunning adaptation of Judith Kerr's The Tiger Who Came to Tea and two opportunities to take part in our Summer Project and Summer School – see page 34. And it's not too early to grab your panto tickets. In 2019, South Hill Park presented its most popular pantomime ever, Aladdin, and in 2026 this timeless classic returns. Tickets are on sale now.

There is so much to see, do and explore at South Hill Park Arts Centre, from fabulous live performances to thought provoking art exhibitions, over 60 courses and workshops, and enjoying your favourite tipples on the terrace.

Whatever you do, I wish you a wonderful summer.

Best wishes

The Secret Garden

Step inside our Italian Gardens and into this timeless story.

A unique run of enchanting outdoor performances set within the grounds of South Hill Park for a truly special summer event.

Mary Lennox, a sullen and spoiled 10-year-old orphan, is sent from India to live with her brooding uncle at gloomy Misselthwaite Manor in Yorkshire.

Discovering a hidden, neglected garden with the help of a robin, Mary plants the seeds of new life for all those drawn into her secret refuge - including kindly local boy Dickon, who knows all about flora and fauna, and her sickly cousin Colin whose wails she hears echoing through the house at night.

A wonderful story of transformation, the magic of nature, and blossoming hope.

SHOUT! The Mod Musical

This mod musical brings back the fab females and smashing sounds that made England swing in the 60s.

With its irresistible blend of hip-swivelling hits, eye-popping fashions and psychedelic dance moves, SHOUT! The Mod Musical takes audiences back to the music, style and freedom of the 1960s. SHOUT! features the classic tunes of To Sir with Love, Downtown, Son of a Preacher Man and Goldfinger.

Chronicling the dawning liberation of women, SHOUT! follows five groovy gals through the glorious 60s as they come of age.

This fun-filled musical will make you want to throw your head back and SHOUT!

Alison Rayner Quintet

Fri 15 May

Alison Rayner Quintet's combination of richly nuanced compositions with folk-infused grooves, skilful musicianship and a love of improvisation, creates a compelling and coherent whole. ARQ plays 'songs without words' and are known for their vibrant, communicative performances. The group won Ensemble of the Year in the prestigious Parliamentary Jazz Awards 2018.

Purposeful, full-toned and melodic... a beautifully integrated band
THE OBSERVER

Mick Foster & Dominic Ashworth

Fri 19 June

Mick Foster is an established saxophonist, clarinetist and composer who is particularly noted as a specialist in the baritone saxophone. Canadian-born Dominic Ashworth is in high demand as a guitarist. Mick and Dominic have frequently performed and recorded together, developing a close musical rapport.

Adam Dyer Quartet & Klara Devlin

Fri 3 July

Pianist Adam Dyer and his quartet returns with new music from his latest album, Transformations, and special guest Klara Devlin – the 2024 BBC Young Jazz Musician of the Year finalist. Devlin was a guest on several album tracks, alongside saxophonist Duncan Eagles, drummer Eric Ford and bassist Jakub Cywinski. Their synergy in the studio was so wonderful that Adam re-wrote a number of his tunes to include her playing.

Klara Devlin... is in my opinion one of the most amazing and unique new trumpet voices to emerge onto the UK jazz scene TONY KOFI

Kenny Wheeler Tribute with Martin Shaw & Tony Woods

Fri 7 Aug

Canadian trumpeter Kenny Wheeler (1930–2014) moved to the UK in 1952 and, through his exquisite lyrical compositions and extraordinary playing, left an indelible stamp on British jazz. Some of his most engaging music is lovingly recreated by trumpeter Martin Shaw and alto saxophonist Tony Woods with the house band.

Wilde Sundays

McAllister's 2pm
£9

Enjoy a relaxed afternoon of live acoustic music, featuring some of the best local acts, across all genres, in a beautiful setting.

Vagabond + Rose Holt + Cutting Room + Scarlet & Sage

Sun 24 May

Four fabulous acts, including GSMC Music Award-winner Rose Holt, acoustic duo Scarlet & Sage performing both original and traditional songs, country and Americana from Vagabond, and The Cutting Room who fuse together the talents of Tegan Perryman and James Perrett to create the music they love.

Jess Tuthill + Amrit Sond + Jim Cozens + Mike Lemin

Sun 26 July

Jess Tuthill is a singer-songwriter from Reading who has been writing music for over 20 years, taking inspiration from her surroundings which includes television and computer games. Amrit Sond pushes the boundaries of the acoustic guitar and interweaves with spine tingling vocals. Jim Cozens is a classic singer-songwriter and storyteller – his songs are personal, universal, joyful and moving. Mike Lemin performs original songs as well as mash-ups of well-known tracks.

Aoife + Dam Anna + Lee Switzer-Woolf + Penny Jayne Black

Sun 16 Aug

Aoife describes herself as 'just some village kid rocking up with some songs she wrote'. Dam Anna is an acoustic duo featuring Dan and Hannah. Lee Switzer-Woolf performs folktronica... or headphone music for sad land mammals. Penny Jayne Black is an award-winning country and Americana singer.

Gigs in the Cellar

Cellar Bar 8pm

£14.50,

good and best friends £12.50

A series of electrifying gigs down in the Cellar Bar, from up-and-coming and established artists of all genres, under the guidance of the Graham Steel Music Company.

Simon Bowers

Wed 20 May

Virtuoso guitarist Simon Bowers is well-known locally – he has been performing on the streets of Bracknell as a busker and has also performed at venues across the South of England, as well as overseas. He puts his own interpretation on well-known songs and for this performance he will be performing his own compositions as well as one or two you may recognise.

Acoustic Blues & Roots Night – Mark T + 3times7 + JP Oldfield

Wed 10 June

A triple bill of Blues & Roots featuring: Mark T blends American-style Delta blues with electrifying, soulful slide guitar and resonator techniques; 3times7 believes that music should leave you feeling good – vocal powerhouse Jenny Lawrence and guitarist David Holdstock play a mix of catchy originals and reinvented covers; JP Oldfield is a multi-award-winning solo musician, based in Wiltshire, blending southern gothic atmospheres with dark folk storytelling, Americana grit and blues-soaked soul.

Polly Morris

Wed 22 July

If you could imagine the love child of Bill Bailey and Victoria Wood, that would be Polly Morris. Her observational comedy songs – about such things as supermarket shopping or the perils of email – are tunes that you can instantly identify with. These are peppered with more thoughtful acoustic numbers that pull at the heart strings. Polly has been singing from an early age, playing piano or guitar as accompaniment. She enjoys writing the songs as much as she loves performing them.

Rebel Idea

Wed 19 Aug

Rebel Idea is a powerhouse band of talented musicians and singers who know how to light up a room. Playing a fantastic mix of rock, pop and country, they bring unstoppable energy, incredible music and good vibes that keep people dancing all night.

Anton Chekhov

Director

David Stacey

Chekhov Shorts

I walked out on twelve women, nine walked out on me, but I never loved one of them the way I do you

We present four hysterical pieces by Anton Chekhov: a chaotic comedy that proves the quickest way from hatred to a wedding is often via a debt; a high-strung farce showing that bureaucracy and family crises are an explosive mix; a poignant look at a life in the theatre, involving a lot of vodka-fuelled regret; and a frantic sketch that makes you wonder how anyone in nineteenth-century Russia ever managed to get married.

This is reality TV before cameras existed – hilarious proof that sometimes a good, loud argument over something utterly trivial is exactly what you need to keep things interesting.

Free – book online only, for young carers

A free term-time arts course, designed for children aged 7–17yrs, who have lived experience of being a young carer.

Explore different visual art styles on a termly basis. Past projects include: soap making, candle making, book binding, kite making, acrylic paint pouring, plaster casting, hot glue sculpting and stencil art.

These weekly sessions provide a safe, nurturing space where young people can enjoy a break from the responsibilities of everyday life, be themselves and make friends.

You do not have to be registered with a local authority or organisation to be recognised as a young carer.

Are you a young carer?

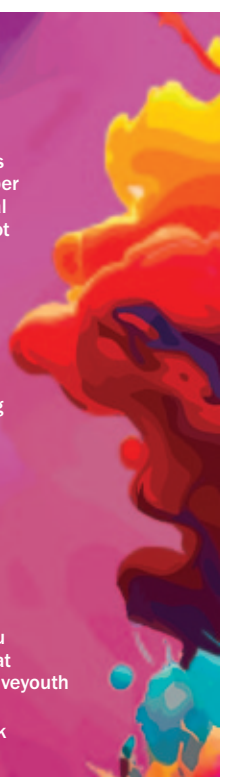

A young carer is someone under 18yrs who cares for a friend or family member who, due to illness, disability, a mental health problem or an addiction, cannot cope without their support.

What might a young carer do?

- Practical tasks, like cooking, housework and shopping
- Physical care, such as helping someone out of bed
- Emotional support, including talking to someone who is distressed
- Personal care, such as helping someone dress
- Managing the family budget and collecting prescriptions
- Helping to give medicine
- Helping someone communicate
- Looking after brothers and sisters.

If this sounds like you, or someone you know, register your free space online at southhillpark.org.uk/take-part/creativeyouth

Summer Project 26 A fantastic summer holiday experience for young people aged 6–15yrs

Whether you're stepping onto the stage for the first time or already love to perform, the Summer Project is a brilliant way to explore your creativity, make friends, and build confidence – all while having loads of fun.

Across five action-packed days, you'll work with professional tutors to create a musical theatre showcase filled with singing, dancing, and drama. Together, we'll rehearse, play games, build performance skills, and prepare to shine in a final performance for family and friends.

No auditions. No experience needed. Just bring your enthusiasm – and we'll do the rest.

Between Reality and Fable; a Retrospective

By Martin & Sandra Bright

Opening event
Sat 2 May 11am–1pm

Martin and Sandra Bright have resided in Bracknell for more than fifty years and we are delighted to stage this retrospective showcasing their ongoing contribution to the arts at South Hill Park.

Sandra's work centres on illustration and is frequently inspired by nursery rhymes, poems and folktales – stories whose original meanings have often shifted or faded through generations of retelling. Her imagery often features strong anthropomorphic elements, creating works with an undercurrent of both fantasy and quiet menace.

Martin's paintings seek to recreate an abstracted reality. Often based on photographs, his work explores personal themes such as his local environment and his long-standing love of jazz. He is particularly interested in capturing overlooked or superfluous details revealing the richness of the everyday world.

Infinite Reflections

By Leigh Ferris

Opening event
Fri 12 June 6.30–8.30pm

From microscopic cells to distant galaxies, the same patterns repeat – reminding us that we are part of something infinitely larger

Leigh Ferris is an abstract artist and specialist nurse in organ donation. Her work explores the connections between the human body and the wider universe, inspired by the patterns and structures that exist both microscopically within us and across the cosmos. Through layered abstraction, she reflects on compassion, mortality and the infinite connections that shape human experience.

Student Open 2026

By South Hill Park students

Student Open 2026 invites all South Hill Park's talented students to show the work they have developed over the past year. Featuring an array of artworks from across the Art Centre's courses including ceramics, printmaking, stained glass, drawing, oil painting, jewellery and silversmithing, quilt making, embroidery and crochet. This exhibition showcases the passion, patience and skill invested into every single artwork by both students and tutors. A selection of artworks will be available for purchase. Please ask Box Office for assistance.

How to find us

South Hill Park Arts Centre is about seven minutes' drive from Bracknell Town Centre in the Birch Hill area. Easily accessible from the M3 (Junction 3) and M4 (Junction 10). We are very well signposted – look for the brown road signs saying 'Arts Centre' or showing a comedy/tragedy mask.

By car

There is FREE but limited parking for 200 cars at South Hill Park Arts Centre. Please note the car park fills up quickly on busy days and you may need to seek alternative parking.

Please follow signs for overflow parking at the Leppington car park (behind Birch Hill Shopping Centre) which is a five-minute walk across our rear grounds. Please leave plenty of time to park when attending South Hill Park.

Public transport

There are several bus routes that can take you from Bracknell Bus Station to South Hill Park, including the 194 (Haversham Drive stop), 171 and 172 (Birch Hill stop). It's then a five-minute walk to the Arts Centre.

For further information on local bus services, visit the Thames Valley Buses website or call 0118 973 3486.

Bracknell is well served with train services from London Waterloo, Reading and other local towns. For further information contact National Rail Enquiries on 0345 7 48 49 50.

South Hill Park grounds

The grounds of South Hill Park are managed by the Heritage Parks Team of Bracknell Forest Council in partnership with Bracknell Town Council.

The team works hard to maintain the grounds to the highest horticultural standards and have achieved the prestigious Green Flag Award and RHS Thames and Chilterns In Bloom Award (Gold Medal) over the past few years. If you have any queries about the grounds of South Hill Park please contact heritage.parks@bracknell-forest.gov.uk and the team will be more than happy to help.

The details in the brochure were correct at the time of going to press. South Hill Park reserves the right to make changes to the published programme in the event of unforeseen circumstances. We reserve the right to make discounted ticket offers to selected current or potential customers at any time.

How to book

Online

southhillpark.org.uk

Email

sales@southhillpark.org.uk

Box Office

01344 484123

In person

Call in to the Arts Centre and book in person at the Box Office.

How to pay

The South Hill Park Box Office is cashless. You can pay using your credit or debit card.

The Atrium Bar and Restaurant will still accept cash.

Ticket prices and booking fees

No additional fees are applied to the advertised ticket prices. A booking fee and levy of up to £2.50 is included in the ticket price to go towards the running costs of the Arts Centre and Wilde Theatre.

Exchanges and transfers

You may only exchange tickets for another performance of the same production up to 48 hours before the performance. An administration fee of £2 per ticket will be charged. Original tickets must be returned at time of exchange. South Hill Park Members will not be charged. Transfer of tickets from one production to another is not possible.

Groups and school bookings

For group bookings of 20+, contact the Box Office via sales@southhillpark.org.uk or call 01344 484123.

For schools wishing to pay by invoice, a £2 per ticket deposit is required before reservations will be processed.

Full details of our group and school booking policies can be found on our website or from our Box Office team.

Refunds and resales

Under the terms and conditions of sale, refunds of tickets are not permitted. However, if the show is sold out, we will try to resell it for you. In this case, we will charge a £2 administration fee per ticket. South Hill Park Members will not be charged for this service. Resale cannot be guaranteed.

Data protection

Customers' data is handled according to the legislation established by the General Data Protection Regulation.

Access

We try to accommodate all visitors to the Arts Centre and Theatre, there may however be restricted access to parts of the building due to its eighteenth-century listed status. Please let us know in advance if you have any particular access requirements.

Our facilities include:

- Disabled parking bays
- Ramped access to the premises including access to box office reception
- Lift access to the Wilde Theatre and to the first floor in the mansion
- Wilde Theatre accessible seating (Row P)
- Adapted toilets equipped with emergency alarms
- Infra-red hearing system installed in the Studio and Wilde Theatres. Headsets available from Box Office.
- The cinema is fitted with an audio induction loop. Customers can use the T-setting on their hearing aids for clear film sound.
- Companions tickets available for people with registered disabilities who require extra support. Please advise the Box Office team of any special requirements you have when making your booking.

Mobility scooters are not permitted in performance spaces. However, we do have a wheelchair that our customers can use to transfer into their purchased seats. Please inform Box Office when booking so they can assign you the most suitable seats for your needs.

Children

Young people aged under 18yrs are not allowed in the building unless attending a pre-booked activity or accompanied by a responsible adult.

South Hill Park is committed to safeguarding children and vulnerable adults.

Booster seats

Available to hire in the Wilde Theatre only for £1 per seat, subject to availability. Please approach our front-of-house volunteers before the performance. Payment by cash only. Booster seats are not permitted on the middle and upper tier areas of the theatre.

Leaving a legacy

As a registered charity we endeavour to make our Arts Centre and Theatre sustainable for future generations in Bracknell and beyond. The arts can transform lives and we hope you feel that way too.

Have you ever considered supporting South Hill Park by leaving a legacy in your will? Your generosity can help ensure future generations continue to enjoy South Hill Park Arts Centre just as you have done. For more information, email development@southhillpark.org.uk

Cinema

We show films throughout the week in our 60-seat cinema – from blockbusters and independents to the best foreign films, we cater for all tastes. Our screenings include dementia friendly, bringing in baby and hard of hearing performances.

Go online for film screening details.

Bracknell Film Society

Bracknell Film Society welcomes everyone to its film screenings at South Hill Park cinema. For general and membership information see bracknellfilmsoc.org
